

2009 Barrow County Pageant

&

2009 Miss Athens Pageant

Saturday , June 20th, 2009

Georgia Pageants has decided to combine the 2009 Barrow County Pageant and the 2009 Miss Athens Pageant into one date. We realize with economic declines that families may be unable to participate in pageants as they would like to. With this in mind we are combining these pageants into one date so that we are able to rent one building, obtain one insurance policy, pay staff salaries for one day, etc. Thus we are able to pass along the savings to the contestants and offer a lower registration fees. Please understand this is something we are doing in 2009, but may not continue in future years.

The pageant will be TWO COMPLETELY SEPARATE PAGEANTS meaning we will have two completely separate sets of judges and two completely separate sets of awards. However, the contestants will go on stage only ONE time, just being judged by two different sets of judges. Contestants have the option to just be in one pageant or both pageants. Contestants entering both pageants ARE eligible to win awards from both pageants. Both titles can be obtained, and one pageant will have nothing to do with the other.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to call or email for information. Please mail registration to:
